Welcome to Summer Housing at Johns Hopkins University

Welcome to Johns Hopkins University! Summer is a great time to visit Baltimore. Johns Hopkins University provides accommodations for a great summer experience on campus. The Housing Office at Johns Hopkins University Homewood Campus offers summer housing to JHU undergraduate, graduate, and visiting students over the age of 18, who are registered for summer classes at the Homewood campus or conducting internships/research on the Homewood campus. We are not able to accommodate students or visiting students enrolled in classes or research/internships at locations other than Homewood.

Check-In

JHU staff will be on site to greet students starting on Sunday, May 22 at noon in Charles Commons. The Charles Commons front desk and check in will be located just inside the main entrance at 3301 North Charles Street. Upon registering, you will be sent specific check in and check out details and information. Room assignments in Charles Commons will not be provided until check in at the Charles Commons Front Desk.

MEALS: Upon checking in, students are given keys and a meal card if a meal plan was pre purchased. Meal plans can be purchased via the registration or added once you arrive to campus. For more questions regarding summer meal plans, please email dining@hd.jhu.edu

For Meal Plan options please view summer housing website and click on meal plans.

Check-Out

Before departing campus, please make sure the room is left in similar condition as when you arrived. Check your room to make sure items are not left behind. Make sure to return any linen received at check-in. Any lost and found items will be donated or discarded if not picked up within 5 days of check out. Check out can be done by visiting the Charles Commons front desk 7am-midnight. If you need to check out outside these times, please visit the desk at least one day prior to check out to find out the process.

There is a $75 lock change fee for any non-returned keys, $25 fee for non-returned access cards, and $10 fee for non-returned meal and parking cards if applicable. Payment for these items will need to be made at checkout. Staff at the front desks cannot accept cash for any reason. Credit card payments only.

Housing

Housing assignments are done based on gender. If you have a concern with rooming assignments, please contact Conference Services at 410-516-3962. Housing can only be provided to registered Homewood students attending courses, internships or research at the Homewood campus. If doing an internship or research, you must provide contact information of the department or professor at Homewood in order to be approved for housing. You will receive your actual room assignment in Charles Commons upon check in. Mail service is provided on campus. You will be provided with a mailbox number and additional information for mailroom hours, locations, etc. at check in.

Housekeeping staff work hard to ensure rooms are prepared for students and keep the environment in good condition. Linen can be provided, if requested and it is the student's responsibility to launder the linen while housed on campus. Linen must be returned at the end of the student's stay. There is a $30 cost for non returned linen. Staff will not enter rooms to clean, but do retain the right to enter rooms for maintenance issues, as necessary.

The Charles Commons front desk will be open 7am—12 midnight, seven days a week. There will be an on-call number posted outside these hours at the desk. In the event of an emergency, calls should be directed to JHU Security at 410-

On behalf of Housing, Dining, and Conference Services, we hope you enjoy your stay at JHU!

JHU is committed to increasing and supporting environmental awareness and consumption on campus, in the community, and abroad. Recycling containers are located in the halls, on the floors, and throughout campus. We ask students and guests to assist us in our environmental consumption and disposal efforts during your stay on campus.
